VOL. 35 BARIUM SPRINGS, N. C., DECEMBER 1958 No. 11

Board Of Regents Holds Regular Fall Meeting

On November 12th and 13th the Regents gathered at Barium Springs for the regular Fall meeting. President M. C. Benton, Jr. introduced Dr. Robert F. Sloop, the new representative from Fayetteville Presbytery, Mr. Royall R. Brown of Winston-Salem, the new member at large, and Mrs. N. F. Dixon, representing Kings Mountain Presbytery. He announced that Mrs. J. R. Benson had been elected to represent Wilmington Presbytery, but she was unable to attend this meeting. Mrs. Colon McLean from Albemarle Presbytery and Mrs. R. E. Brooks from Orange Presbytery were welcomed back to the Board, as they began their second terms.

The Board received the report of the Finance Committee that, while the Home was not in debt, its approved expenditures for the year were $4,000.00 in excess of its income. The Committee recommended that the Board diligently seek ways and means of interpreting to the Church the need for the financial support in order that the deficit of the year might not be repeated. The auditors' report was reviewed and ordered copies sent to the Synod's Office.

In reviewing the year's work, particular attention was given to some of the major needs. The Buildings and Grounds Committee strongly urged a big renovation program to bring the buildings into good repair, inside and out. The water supply at Barium Springs has been a source of serious concern for many years. Three deep wells supply the water and two of these are red mineral which spoils the fixtures, discolors the clothes, and clogs the water lines. It seems inevitable that some special arrangement be made with the City of Statesville or that some other source be found for the supply of water for the Home. The Board expressed the hope that something might be done during the Spring to secure a swimming pool inasmuch as the old pool became a serious source of infection during the past summer and on doctors orders had to be closed.

The Board heard the reports of its committees: Casework, Education and Religion, Farm, Dairy and Orchards, Buildings and Grounds, and Finance and Budget. The work of the Home during the fiscal year October 1st, 1957-September 30th, 1958 was approved as satisfactory and the Committee members were urged to plan carefully on the campus for each section of the Home's life and be ready to give a full and comprehensive report at the Spring meeting.

Each member of the Board upon leaving the campus was presented with a bag of apples and a jug of cider. It is hoped that the arrivals in their various home towns were safe and that no one was questioned while en route concerning the contents of the jugs.

To all our friends far and near we send this greeting. As the tinsel shines, the ribbons glisten, and the candles glow, may the Spirit of the Christ Child fill your hearts with His peace and love. Hi Folks—

Last week was a busy week with all our regular work, school, basketball practice, and many other things which we do from day to day, but at the close of each day, we had the pleasure of hearing Reverend George M. Webb from Shelby. Mr. Webb's theme was "God In Action", and he spoke on the following subjects:

Sunday Morning—What Do You Want Me To Do For You?

Sunday Evening—Invasion From Another World.

Monday Evening—God On The Attack

Tuesday Evening — The Transforming Friendship

Wednesday Evening— The Voice Of Destiny

Thursday Evening — The Map For Hidden Treasure

Friday Evening—The People Of God

All of Mr. Webb's sermons were interesting and we enjoyed them very much. Also, each night the Church Choir, the Girls' Choir, and Miss Pat Buercklin furnished special music. This was under the direction of Miss Charlotte Calhoun, assisted by Mrs. Forrest Price. During the week, a member of the Senior High Fellowship read the Scriptures and then introduced Mr. Webb. Those taking part were: Edna Evans, Jim Kiser, Jean Murdock, Richard Blackburn, Beverly McClure, and Wayne Wright. The Pioneers were especially interested in each one of Mr. Webb's subjects as they drew posters to illustrate what they

Football Banquet Staged In Big Dining Room

BY JERRY JOSEY
Record & Landmark Sports Editor

Barium Springs held its annual football banquet last night and three members of this year's varsity club, which finished one of its best seasons in recent years, picked up the top grid awards voted by their teammates.

Blocking Back Jim Kiser, who doubled as linebacker defensively and was a key cog in Barium's single wing attack, was named the most valuable player in a ballot of the varsity squad.

The best blocker award went to End Wayne Wright, a consistent performer at the flanks for the Tornadoes all season.

Randy Shaw, who directed the Barium attack in the tailback slot, was named permanent captain for the 1958 edition of the Tornadoes.

The selections were announced by R. G. Calhoun, head coach at Barium, following a steak dinner last night on the campus at Barium Springs, attended by all the football players from the midget ranks through the varsity eleven, plus special guests.

Following the dinner, several members of the midget club, third and fourth grade boys, entertained with three musical selections.

Calhoun expressed his thanks to the persons at Barium who helped during football season and cited all departments at Barium for their help. "We had a wonderful year," Calhoun said. "It's been several years since I have been able to stand up here and say we've had a winning season.

Calhoun pointed out that it had been around five years since the Tornadoes had won as many as three games in the tough North Piedmont Conference grid warfare. He cited the spirit and determination of the players, from the varsity downward to the midgets, as playing an important factor.

Barium's varsity squad finished in fifth place in North Piedmont Conference this season and held one distinction. They scored at least two touchdowns against every club they played except the powerful Asheboro Blue Comets, who gave up a total of two touchdowns in their march to an unbeaten conference year and went on to win both the Piedmont Conferences and Western North Carolina High School Activities Association championship.

"Every game that we won, we were behind," Calhoun said, pointing out the fine spirit of cooperation. He especially paid tribute to the team for their fine 20-19 victory over Thomasville in the final home game at Barium Springs this year.

Calhoun pointed out another oddity of the season. Against Lexington, the Yellow Jackets scored on the final play of the first half. Barium came back and scored on the final play of the game. With time quickly running out and on the five-yard line, the linemen quickly shouted "84,"

UNDER THE STEEPLE

BY REV. HUGH B. CARTER JR.

November brought the Reverend George M. Webb, minister of the Shelby Presbyterian Church to our campus to hold a series of meetings for our week of Spiritual Enrichment. Mr. Webb's theme was "God In Action". As a consequence of the week of Spiritual Enrichment, a class is being held for inquirers and those who would like to prepare themselves for church membership. At the first meeting of the class those present were: Charlie Allen, Kenneth Brewer, Linda Bridgers, Lou Anna Bridgers, Karen Crews, Ricky Davis, Bobby Grier, Chick Heritage, Joyce Ann Hughes, Benny Joyner, Larry Joyner, Dwight Lefler, Clyde Mace, Linda Sue Medlin, Sherry Ross, Walter Snead, Nancy Tyndall, Kenneth Utsman, Peggy Jo Utsman, Leon Waters, Arthur Wiencken, Abner Wilkins, Larry Wilkins.

November also brought the opportunity for every member of Little Joe's Church to prove the reality of his faith with a commitment of life and money for the work to be done next year. On Dedication Day the congregation pledged a total of $6,718. The record showed 42 adults and 167 boys and girls making a commitment. The boys and girls of the congregation pledged a total of $660 and many indicated that they were tithing. The final report of pledges will be given to the Budget Committee composed of J. W. Crews, Chairman, Roger H. Neill, Don R. Bolton, Miss French Boyd, Miss Charlotte Calhoun, Arthur Sigmon, and James Kiser.

Pioneers made posters and went to parties this month. Posters were made to illustrate the theme and sermon topics presented by Mr. Webb. Sanctified imagination was turned loose on the different topics with results that stimulated considerable advance interest in the way that the preacher would deal with his subjects. Some two dozen posters were submitted, and prizes were awarded to Lois Allen, Eloise Barefoot, David Blalock, Peggy Bridgers, Ronald Brown, Sue Bush, Jeanette Grier, Paulette Grier, Rita Harris, Mike Heritage, Amick Johnson, Frosty Murdock and Judy Smith. At a costume party given by the Pioneers of the First Presbyterian Church in Statesville, prizes were copped by Forrest (Gabby Hayes) Spencer and Dan (Wolf) McLaurin. Statesville Pioneers were here for an afternoon of fun and worship, and the Pioneers of the Waldensian Church in Valdese are to be our guests on November 30.

Senior Highs have undertaken a Fall Paper Drive and proceeds will go to a project to be determined later. Miss Rebekah Carpenter, adult adviser, was hostess to the Council for a supper party to which Mr. Webb was invited along with Rev. and Mrs. A. B. McClure and Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Carter. The Council is sponsoring a Thanksgiving Week-end Dance to be given in the gym with the following committees appointed: President McKenzie, Host; Miss Carpenter, Judy Bolton, Julia Clendenin, and Audrey Waters, Refreshments; Richard Blackburn, Disk Jockey; and Decorators Wayne Wright, Graham Blake, Richard Blackburn, Edna Evans, James Kiser, Beverly McClure, Dickie McKenzie, Joe Ramsey, and Randy Shaw. The Senior High Fellowship were guests of the SHF of Cook's Memorial Church in Charlotte at a "Platter Party" during the month.

The Men and Women of the Church are looking forward to their annual Joint-Meeting on December 8 at which the Men will furnish the supper and the Women will present the program. At the quarterly meeting of the WOC, officers were installed for the coming year and 30 members were in attendance. Those installed were Mrs. Eva Ellis, Vice President; Mrs. D. R. Bolton, Secretary; Mrs. I. B. White, Treasurer; Mrs. W. A. Gibson. Men of the Church carried on a visitation program in connection with the week of Spiritual Enrichment with R. G. Calhoun in charge.

Mr. A. M. Calhoun will have a demonstration class at the next meeting of the Sunday School Worker's Conference, and teachers will make plans for their December classes. Miss Reba Thompson, C. L. Donaldson, J. H. Lowrance and the Superintendent, A. M. Calhoun constitute the Session's Committee on Christian Education. The following new teachers have been added to the Sunday School Department: Primary Class, Mrs. A. M. Calhoun; Pioneers, Mrs. Roger Murdock; Adults, Mrs. H. B. Carter.

The Howard Cottage Girls took favors and presented a religious program at the Iredell County Home during the month of November.

These are some of the activities which kept things from being too quiet under the steeple.

The following Chairmen were installed: Church Extension, Miss Kate Taylor; Stewardship, Mrs. W. L. Roberts; Annuities and Relief, Miss Neely Ford; Evangelism, Mrs. McElrath. Mrs. Hugh Carter will be Chairman of the Mallie Brown Circle which will meet at a morning hour, and Miss Patricia Buercklin will be the Elsie Grier Circle Chairman.

thought Mr. Webb might bring out. The posters were very good and they were judged on Monday night. The winners were given a prize on Sunday afternoon, November 23, at their regular Pioneer meeting. Jeanette Grier and Sue Bush won second place on their posters, Congratulations Girls.

Thanksgiving is here again and we hope everyone will have a nice Thanksgiving. Let each of us stop to give thanks to God who is so good and gracious to us.

Miss Charlotte Calhoun carried a group of girls to Raleigh this week-end to sing at the First Presbyterian Church. They were: Ellen Neill, Beverly McClure, Patsy Ross, Linda Utsman, Linda Byrd, and Vicki Brafford. Another group of boys and girls went to Charlotte to tell about their life at Barium Springs.

On Sunday morning, November 23rd, our minister, Mr. Hugh B. Carter, Jr., started a Communicant Class for all who feel like they are ready to unite with the Church.

From Rumple Hall we only have one girl left who will celebrate her birthday in 1958 —Happy Birthday, Elva!

We have already written our letters to Santa and it won't be long until Christmas will be here again. Since this will be our last news this year, we want to say "Merry Christmas" and "Happy New Year" to each and everyone— especially to our friends throughout the Synod of North Carolina who help to make Barium Springs a comfortable and happy Home in which to live.

See you next year—1959!

Howard Cottage

Hello Friends—

Is Howard Cottage happy this morning! Our four Pioneers each won a first prize in a poster contest for their Sunday Night Fellowship Group. About a week before our special services began, our pastor gave us Mr. Webb's sermon topics and suggested that we illustrate them on posters. Rita made a poster on "God in Action"; Eloise made one on "The Hidden Treasure"; Lois made one on "The Transforming Friendship"; and Paulette made one on "The People of God." Each of these girls won a big, bright silver dollar. Our eight-year old Linda Roberts is happy too. Her sister, Donna, has moved into our cottage with us.

Report cards come this week and two Thanksgiving holidays. How our time does fly!

On November 9th, our cottage gave a little playlet to our Iredell County Home. We read how Miss Humphries who later became Mrs. Alexander, wrote "There Is A Green Hill Far Away," then we wrote our little playlet and practiced it with each other until we hoped we could lead our friends in a worship service. Mr. Carter and Miss Calhoun helped us.

Lots of love and Merry Christmas to you all, the number of a play, and lined up instead of going back to the huddle. The quarterback yelled "on three" and the Tornadoes scored as the final whistle sounded.

Barium's varsity had a 3-4 record. The juniors came up with a 2-1 record. They divided the midgets into four squads, played two games and "Barium won both," Calhoun added, giving the Presbyterians a winning season.

Following the presentation of awards, Rev. Hugh Carter, pastor of Little Joe's Presbyterian Church at Barium and labeled "our No. 1 suporter" by Calhoun, showed movies of several games. Rev. Carter, who could be heard yelling "You're all right, Barium" at practically every game, screened shots of the Asheboro and Thomasville games.

Varsity letters were presented to Richard Blackburn, Graham Blake, Jim Blake, Jim Bunnell, Douglas Byrd, Buddy Cochrane, Donald Frazier, Henry Harris, Kenneth Joyner, Jim Kiser, Lacy Lentz, Ricky McArthur, Dickie McKenzie, Joe Ramsey, Randy Shaw and Wayne Wright.
